

Various Field Biologist Positions available for seasonal or as-needed/part-time basis for various projects throughout Southern California and Southern Nevada

Desired Qualifications

- Ability to conduct surveys in rough terrain and/or weather conditions (i.e. extreme heat) in a team or independently
- Demonstrated field experience with biological assessments, sensitive species protocol surveys, habitat assessments, wildlife identification, plant identification, and compliance monitoring
- Good communication skills, self-motivated, team-player
- Experience with the following species is desired:
 - desert tortoise
 - small mammals
 - flat-tailed horned lizard
 - burrowing owl
 - nesting birds
 - special status plants
- Residents of southern CA, NV, or AZ
- Ability to be flexible with changing tasks
- Willingness to work on weekends, as-needed
- Ability to hike at minimum 10 miles a day
- Willingness to travel 90-100% of the time, as-needed for projects
- Can lift up to 35 lbs
- Good driving record

Why join our team?

- Great work environment based on collaborative efforts
- Small company
- Opportunities to learn and grow your experience through sponsored trainings, even for part-time employees
- Paid volunteer day
- Potential to pursue passion projects if you choose to grow your career with us
- Development work balanced with research support work

Education: B.S. in Biology, Ecology, Environment, or similar degree

Experience: Demonstrated field experience of 2 years+, desert southwest or CA or NV experience preferred

Rate: $22-$45/ hour, depending on experience

To apply, please send a cover letter and resume to jobs@ironwoodbio.com